DEMOCRATS CONVENSH

Our Friends the Enemy Capture
Maysville in Great Shape.

ROLLA K. HART FOR CONGRESS

Hon. Ben E. Roe Chairman—Lots of Speeches, and a Whole Raft of Resolutions.

HERE'S THE OFFICIAL BADGE.

There are at least enough Democrats left in the Ninth Congressional District to fill Washington Opera-house—if the doors are thrown wide open and all Republicans that care to do so are permitted to enter.

All yesterday morning delegates were coming in by ones and twos and by road and rail, and when the K. C. train arrived there was an influx that could have put Coxey's army to flight.

The Fleming delegation, headed by Captain W. G. Dearing and another brass band, numbered fully 100, with another brass band at the tail end. In reply to THE LEDGER's query a delegate replied that there was no one left in Fleming county except the old women—which we didn't believe because a Democratic Editor said so.

Nicholas sent down a representation of about 30 on the same train.

And there were delegations from the other counties of the District, except Lawrence, which was lost in the shuffle.

At 11 o'clock Acting Chairman Kehoe called the Convention to order in a neat address.

Hon. Gilbar Cassiday of Fleming nominated Hon. Ben E. Roe of Greenup for Temporary Chairman, which was seconded by Hon. Garrett S. Wall of Mason.

While a committee was out looking for Mr. Roe, Hon. W. J. Hendrick was called on, and in a speech he said a good many things not calculated to inspire hope in the Democratic breast. He painted a very dark picture, in fact, and declared that the "Democratic gods were not worshipped in 1894 as they were in 1892."

The committee at length arrived with Mr. Roe, who thanked the Convention for the honor, and he, too, talked of the dark cloud that envelopes the country, but he laid the blame at the door of the Republican party.

Joseph A. Walton of Bracken and all the Democratic Editors present were made Secretaries.

On motion of a gentleman from Fleming the temporary organization was made the permanent organization.

The Chair was authorized to appoint one delegate from each county on Committees on Credentials and Resolutions. But it was suggested by the Chair that, on account of his not knowing the delegates, it would be better to call the counties and let some delegate name the committee members.

The counties were called and the committees constituted as follows:

Credentials.
Boyd, J. W. Hughes. W. H. Dougherty.
Bracken, J. C. Hopkins. James Mullin.
Carter, J. P. Allen. J. H. Boudo.
Fleming, J. H. Power. Frank Power.
Greenup, J. C. Wilson. H. V. Puthoff.
Harrison, J. M. Allen. Howard Jett.
Lawrence, Not represented.
Lewis, J. H. Garland. Robert Wilson.
Mason, J. G. Sulzer. G. H. Kehoe.
Nicholas, J. L. Williams. J. H. Keller.
Robertson, C. B. McLeod. M. E. Wheeler.
Rowan, T. P. Tippet. T. P. Tippet.

When Mason was reached the Chair broke away from his suggestion and appointed Mr. Kehoe on Resolutions, in spite of a "kick," but he graciously permitted the Mason delegation to name the member of the Committee on Credentials. Pending the report of these committees the Convention took a recess until half past 1 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Chairman Roe called the Convention to order and the Committee on Credentials reported that each county was represented, either by delegates or proxy, and there being no contests the report was adopted.

J. N. Kehoe presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions as follows:

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District in Convention assembled, adopt the following resolutions:

First—That we heartily endorse the present Democratic Administration, and pledge it our earnest support in its effort to relieve the people from the oppression of Republican misrule and paternalism.

Second—That we heartily endorse a continuation of the fight for tariff reform, and urge all Democratic Senators to aid in the immediate passage in the Senate of a Democratic Tariff reform measure, so that the Democracy of the Nation may continue to carry out all its promises to the people, as expressed in the platform of principles adopted at the last Democratic National Convention.

Third—That we denounce as traitors to our principles and to their constituents any Democratic Senators who interfere with the efforts of the Democratic party to enact a Tariff reform measure.

Fourth—That we endorse the efforts of the Monetary Conference, now in session in London, to establish a sound bimetallic basis for the currency of the world, and urge the officials of our Government to use their best endeavors to further the objects of said Conference.

The report was adopted with as much enthusiasm as could be mustered.

On a call of the counties for nominations, when Harrison was reached Judge Lafferty nominated Hon. Rolla K. Hart for a clever speech.

And the call continued without any further name being presented.

C. W. Goodpaster of Bath seconded the nomination, and after a rousing speech by James P. Allen of Fleming, the nomination was made unanimous.

A. C. Respass of Mason, William Addams of Harrison and Hon. T. H. Paynter of Greenup were appointed to notify Mr. Hart of his nomination.

In response to repeated calls Hon. P. W. Hardin spoke at some length, and made a most excellent argument—from a Democratic standpoint.

A. C. Respass introduced Hon. R. K. Hart and asked the Democracy to stand by him.

Mr. Hart, in a well-worded and brief speech, accepted the nomination. He promised to serve his party well and faithfully—never for a moment entertaining the idea of defeat. His speech was the subject of what applause there was left.

Then there were calls for Mr. Paynter, who reviewed his career in Congress, and declared that he had no apology to make to any individual for what he had done.

A. O. Stanley of Fleming was introduced by W. J. Hendrick and he, too, quoted ancient history by the yard, told of the past glories of the Democratic party and delivered a warm eulogy of Rolla Hart.

Captain W. G. Dearing of Fleming also spoke in high praise of Mr. Hart, gave the Republican party the devil and lauded Democracy and Tariff reform to the skies.

Hon. Green R. Keller of Carlisle was called on, and spoke of Mr. Hart's efficiency as a legislator and as an organizer of men.

On motion, thanks were tendered everybody and the Convention adjourned.

LITTLE BADGES.

It was a charming day, and THE LEDGER rejoices that so many strangers were in the city.

The Sardia Band, the Elizaville Band and the Cowan Band furnished all the music that was not supplied by the speakers.

Among the prominent persons on the stage were Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, M. C.; Hon. W. J. Hendrick, Attorney General; Hon. J. P. Harbeson, Hon. George Washington of Newport; Hon. Leslie Applegate of Falmouth; Hon. Webb Goodpaster of Owingsville; Hon. P. W. Hardin of Frankfort; Hon. Green R. Keller of Carlisle.

The Press was represented as follows: Park Kentuckian-Citizen, Colonel J. G. Craddock; Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, Hiram Duley; Carlisle Mercury, Hon. Green R. Keller; Fleming News, James F. Hinton; Robertson Advance, J. L. McDowell; Maysville Bulletin, M. J. McCarthy; Augusta Reporter, J. W. Crumbaugh; Cynthiana Democrat, J. M. Allen.

An old and respected citizen yesterday unconsciously got off a good thing. Everybody knows that Professor Samwell's trained animals have been holding the boards at the Opera-house all week. The respected citizen was seated in a street car near the Opera-house when the Democratic Convention adjourned, and seeing the crowd coming out he remarked, "Well, I guess the dog show's over."

Miss Lizzie Carr of the Sixth Ward sends 756 stamps for Miss Dollie Rose, and Miss Beatie Carr sends 310 stamps.

Mrs. H. M. DeAtley of the Sixth Ward has been called to Vanceburg on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. M. L. DeAtley.

Another skeleton has been unearthed at South Ripley. It had everything in the box except money, which of course accounts for its being there.

The Mayflower, a theatrical steamer, with stage scenery and accommodations for 700 people, left Pittsburgh Tuesday morning on a tour of the Ohio.

Mrs. Alice Orr will not teach school at Flemingsburg any more after the close of her school this term. She will go to Birmingham, Ala., with her sons.

Thirteen is an unlucky number. Last week at Hopkinsville a negro was shot while leaving a henroost, and in the sack he dropped were found thirteen chickens.

Well, I Do Declare.

The proprietor of one of the largest business houses in Maysville, speaking a few days ago of a certain Republican editor, remarked: "I'm getting tired of his continual harping about hard times. He would talk us all into ruin if he could. He seems to think the people are fools or ignoramuses."

There were unmistakable evidences yesterday that some other Maysville business men are also getting tired of the G. O. P. editor's talk, and are manifesting a tendency to call him down.—Bulletin.

You don't say so! If we have said anything that hurts you we are very glad of it.

And if you don't like our "harping" we will continue to play on the same old string as long as it lasts.

Remember, you furnish the text; we simply do the preaching.

Now, please "call us down" some more.

INDIGNANT DEMOCRAT.

Leading Cleveland Organ Repudiates and Denounces the Tariff Program.

Brooklyn Eagle (Cleveland Dem.)
The papers are full of surmises about the new Tariff measure. The country does not know what it is or where it is, or what men are making it. The members of Congress also know none of these things. A project of National legislation which directly affects every interest and every person in this Republic is kept as profound a secret from the body of Federal legislators, from all private citizens and from all but a very few officials as the confidential statements of a penitent to a priest, a patient to his physician....

A party that is pledged to Tariff reform and that drops reform out of the pledge and merely puts stress on Tariff change adds to its infidelity the injury of the country. Change merely for the sake of change is never defensible. It dislocates wantonly. It deranges needlessly and hence wickedly....

Unsettlement without improvement is suicidal. When this unsettlement is deliberately protracted over a year and a half, the distress, the peril and the indignation are increased....

Business was stranded during 1893 by this imbecility. It has been prostrated for 1894 for the same reason. The outlook for the rest of the Administration, if better, will be better merely because it must change and cannot change for the worse. The capacity to legislate at all seems lost by the legislators. The strength of the Government—and the greatness of the people—are attested by their ability to endure Congress and to discount its imbecility....

A measure that came from the House named the Wilson Bill has been changed in nearly everything but its name. Virtually nearly all but the enacting clause has been stricken out, always excepting the income tax, which has been preserved as a fetich to sate Southern hates and Western revenges on Northern thrift.

The speeches by which these crass Protection and agrarian purposes are defended empty the Senate of all except each speaker and the officers of the body, except when some scene of blasphemy and vilification is precipitated, as was the case on Monday....

If forced to choose between evils, the New York Democracy would far rather let McKinleyism remain, with Republicanism responsible for it, than tolerate a trust-pudding aggravated by highway robbery as the Senate Bill, plus the income tax attachment, now is. The New York Democracy will yet preserve the party from the conspiracy of Senatorial agents against its National principles.

ON TO WASHINGTON.

Oh, let us march to Washington
And ask for legislation
To make the trees grow greenback leaves,
To have the clouds rain pure milk,
To make nutritious wooden beavers
And strong tenuous cobweb silk
For each man in the Nation.

Oh, let us march to Washington
With a polite petition
That Congress change red sand to meal
And make the pie plant bloom with pie;
Or else make all the common weal
Be satisfied and nourished by
Spontaneous nutrition.

Oh, let us march to Washington
And ask our legislators
To make pure air a legal food,
To make all apples without core,
And that all pebbles that are strewn
Along the misty ocean shore
Be changed into potatoes.

Oh, let us march to Washington
And urge with force and reason
That Congress make all labor crime
And abrogate old Adam's fall,
And make all hours dinner time,
All work unconstitutional,
And industry high treason.

Thanks to the Sun Life.

MAYSVILLE, KY., May 9th, 1894.
To Sun Life Insurance Company: Allow me to express my deep gratitude for the promptness with which you paid the claim on the life of my wife Lottie, who died on the 6th. It was only a five-cent policy, and little had been paid on it when death came, yet I received $81 75. Owing to this I was relieved at a time when I would have probably been most embarrassed financially, receiving, as I did, a benefit on the same day of her death. Thanking you heartily for the full payment, I am, yours respectfully,

WILLIS DUGAN.
